Subject: Call with NASS, NASED, and Center for Internet Security

[redacted]

Hope this finds you and the family well. The Center for Internet Security, which manages the Election Infrastructure ISAC, is developing a portal to facilitate reporting from State and local election officials. The idea is to establish a centralized portal for reporting disinformation or other issues on platforms so that election officials only have one place to go to report. NASS and NASED support use of this portal and have asked CISA to facilitate a meeting with you all to discuss further. Would you, and anyone at Facebook you think appropriate, have time for a call with NASS, NASED, CIS and CISA over the next week or two?

Thanks,
Brian

Is there evidence establishing that this is a hoax?

Alex,

Thanks for flagging. Sending this into our teams now.

Added EI-ISAC to see if Erie officials want to have a public response.

Yoel Roth: Hopefully we get an official statement, but so far none of these public "admissions" of the commission of a felony have played out.

For awareness, CFITF is escalating this to NASS/NASED

I have spoken with PA state officials, who report that the county official does not believe this is a real pollworker. I have emailed the county as well.

Yoel Roth and Alexis Crews, please see the note from aaron.wilson@cisecurity.org verifying that PA officials believe this person is not a pollworker.
